First item discussed was a review of the events of 2004.

Two MTB races.

A successful road tour, with hopes of even better this year.

Great rides at RAIN as well as the OKHT, the club had great participation in both of these events.

Brandon Raney's trip to Tour De Georgia, and some great pictures which he brought back.

Xtream Team racing-Great job guys.

Jeff Richardson, and Adam Loberts trip to France. Climbing of L'Alpe, and excellent video provide by Jeff's helmet cam.

A successful 1000 mile Club contest.

Thanks again to Jeff and Mitzi Richardson for the use of there home for the Christmas Party.

Next up was the Treasurer's report given by Marlin Jiranek.

The club has $1631.42 in its account.

Club would need $310 in income from races,dues,etc. To pay bills for the year.

As of beginning of meeting there were 18 paid members.Remindertopaydues,Family/$17,Single/$15
As membership does have its benefits.

Bills that will be due this year include, Web hosting, due in Oct., Club insurance will come due at the end of Feb. The clubs membership in League of American Cyclist is now current.

2005 CKW sponsored events will include:
2 MTB races 1 in April and 1 in May. 1st race will be a XC race and the 2nd will be a Mountain TT. Both races will be part of the Points Series races in KY.

Will need Volunteer help to insure successful events as we try to solidify the reputations of our races. Please contact Mike Keeney as he is head of race Committee.

The Youngers Creek Trails were said to be in good shape with some things needed to be done.

The need to develop a schedule for spring trail Maintenance.

There is $200 ready for use on trail projects. This money was given to us by KYMBA. Brian Kenady will let Keith, and other trail builders know this.

There will be another Road tour this year; Marlin Jiranek will spearhead this effort. Plans are for this years event are to lengthen the long route and leave the shorter one as is.

Flyers for MTB races and tour need to be circulating as soon as possible.

Derek Larson will be hosting a Road Race in Cub Run, KY on April 9th .May need some volunteer help, will let us know if need arises. However show support be coming out to watch or ride in the event as there will be classes from beginner to pro.

Xtreme racing team is functioning and preparing to race a full schedule this year. We wish all good luck for a successful year!

1000 mile club will be going on this year with a few modifications.

Has been changed to 1500 mile club to encourage more riding. May change from loser hosting party to taking volunteers. Awards for different accomplishments or lack thereof.

Rain ride will be July, 16th this year.

OKHT will be weekend of Sept. 10th & 11th.

The club always has great rides during these events.

Discussed maybe getting some members together to do the Mammoth Cave tour.

Trip to Snowshoe Mountain West Virginia for MTB riding. Trip is scheduled for July 22nd-26th. Will be a great trip for riders as well as non-riders as there are lots of family oriented things to do. Would be staying at Alleghany Springs which is part of the village. Some info can be found at www.snowshoemtn.com although I looked and there was not much posted yet on biking as this is still the Skiing season.

Club rides will be scheduled as well as rides by individuals.

Other items discussed were the need for a spring advertising campaign to try to draw in new members.

How to distribute flyers for races and the road tour.

Web log for miles, which Randy has up and running.

Proposal to create a club historian who would be responsible for collecting photos throughout the year as well as maybe digging up the history of the club.

Maps for various rides can be had either thru the Recycle Bin, Kyride.org, or bikethisway.com.

There are water bottles still for sale.

Chris Carmichael will be in Louisville Feb. 11th flyer can be seen on the message board under events.
